

Samuel Saens Rozas

Samuel Saens Rozas is the locally responsible officer in Brazil for finance, administration & IT for the Sugar & Bioenergy business (the fourth largest producer in Brazil with eight sugar mills, 22 million tons of crushing capacity, one billion dollars in revenues, US$ 1.5 billion in assets, 6,500 employees, and 350,000 sugar cane hectares under management). He oversees all financial activities (FP&A, risk, treasury, accounting, internal control, tax, strategic planning, accounting and control of costs, IT, planning and control of operations, and investors relations), with 12 employees reporting directly to him and 300+ employees under his management.